

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS residents of the Township of Rideau Lakes began planting daffodils along Freeland Road in the fall of 1999 to bloom for the Millennium;

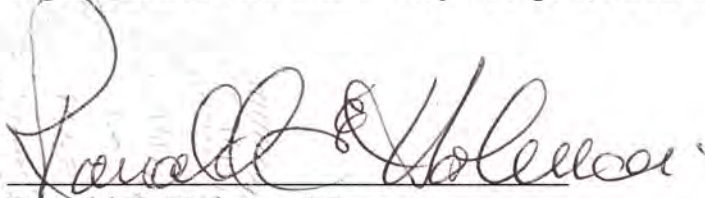

AND WHEREAS in 2010, the Joint Beautification Sub-Committee launched The Daffodil Project - Making Rideau Lakes the "Daffodil Capital of Ontario" by 2015;

AND WHEREAS hundreds of residents have embraced this project and have continued to plant daffodil bulbs throughout the Township;

AND WHEREAS each spring tens of thousands of daffodils now bloom beside roads, along fences, in public spaces and in private gardens within the Township of Rideau Lakes;

NOW THEREFORE I, Ronald E. Holman, Mayor, do hereby declare The Corporation of the Township of Rideau Lakes in the United Counties of Leeds and Grenville to be The Daffodil Capital of Ontario.

Signed and Sealed this 7th day of April, 2015 in Chantry, Ontario.

Ronald E. Holman, Mayor
